

NOTABLE POINTS OF MINER MUNROE'S GIANT-LIKE FRAME.

BY HAYDON JONES.

A STUDY OF THE MAN'S POWERFUL LEGS

Man Who Floored Jeffries Is Due In New York To-Morrow—Created a Sensation in Buffalo.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 15.—Burly Jack Munroe, the Montana knight of pugilism, who hopes to conquer James J. Jeffries in the prize ring and incidentally wear the crown of heavy-weight champion of the nation, caused a mild sensation here, this morning, when he arrived in Buffalo. Sporting enthusiasts were agog with excitement over the arrival of the pugilist, whose claim to fame lies in the fact that he is the only man who ever brought Jeffries to his knees. Munroe was besieged with men and curious boys wherever he went, and he surely had a taste of the popularity which goes with the feeling glories every prominent pugilist enjoys. Munroe was confused in a measure by the attention paid him and he showed it plainly.

Munroe, who is nothing more than a big, good-natured boy, with nothing but a tower of strength and two big fists with which to fight his way into the front ranks of the pugilistic world, was disappointed at the Buffalo Gymnasium. Instead of being a quick, active man, fit and nimble of foot, he proved himself to be slow in his movements and not any too clever with his hands. Yet it was this same man who recently electrified big Jeff by his punching powers and gameness.

Munroe is not as big as most people expected to find him. He is built something like George Gardner in the body. He is slight in the middle, but with a pair of shoulders. His arms are big and round and none too long. His wrists are noticeably large, and his hands are like knots. Munroe's weight seems to be in the legs, which are altogether too large. Jack is not muscular, and his appearance shows that he has had little or no training.

At 6 o'clock last evening Munroe left for Toronto. He went to the Canadian city to visit his sister, whom he has not seen since he left Frisco several months ago. He will return to Buffalo to-night and leave for New York, arriving there early Friday morning.

That Munroe possesses one commendable qualification was proven by his actions here. He has a big heart and a ready hand for the unfortunate. The first time he arrived in town spread like wild-fire, and it was not long before a crowd of people had gathered at the Tilt House to get a "peek" at him. While chatting with Frank Erne in front of the hotel a shabbily dressed man walked up to Munroe and asked him if he would kindly give him the price of a supper.

"Don't you work?" asked Munroe smilingly as he reached in his pockets. "Yes, when I can," was the answer, "but, things have not been coming my way."

Munroe did not have any small change. He told the seeker of alms to wait while he changed a bill. After getting five silver dollars for his bill, Jack returned to the street and handed one of the coins to the man.

"I ain't got many of them myself now, but I hope to some day, old man," said Munroe.

While at the Buffalo gymnasium after his arrival Munroe was taken in hand by Frank Erne and Jack did not actually box. Erne simply put on a pair of gloves for the purpose of showing Munroe a few fine points about the game. Jack was pleased with what Erne explained to him about the manly art, and said he would like to have Erne train him for his first big fight. Erne thanked Jack for his generous offer, but said that he is out of anything game for good and all and that nothing would induce him to take it up again.

"I think that if I had a fellow like Erne with me for a while, who would teach me how to jab and hook and side-step, I would be able to lick all the Jeffrieses in the land. Remember, I fought Jeffries without a day's training and I guess if I knew anything that night I could have knocked him out. Just wait, if I can get Erne or Tommy Ryan to help me out a little, I'll show some of those heavy-weights what's what," and Erne agreed with him.

ENTRY BLANKS OUT TO-DAY FOR BG BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

Choice of Dates for Evening World's Contest Will Be Given to Early Applicants.

To-day the committee in charge of The Evening World's Free Bowling Tournament will send out the application blanks for entries and special attention is called to the fact that the postmark on the envelope of the returned application will be considered the official time of the filing of the entry.

With over five hundred teams to compete the captains who get in their entries first will have the best choice of dates and it is therefore advisable that the applications be made at once.

The date of the starting of the tournament has been set for Feb. 5, and every team will be in readiness at that time to have the games started off with a rush.

Amann & Triess's alleys will be put in shape for the event at once. They will all be planned and no team will have any advantage in the matter of familiarity with the surroundings.

Ten sets of regulations have been ordered especially for the occasion. A set will be marked "Monday," another "Tuesday," a third "Wednesday," a fourth "Thursday" and a fifth "Friday."

Every Monday the same set of pins will be used and the same will be true of the other days in the week. This is a feature that will appeal to all bowlers and insures absolute fairness. The captain of a team will have a right to see that he has the same pins on Monday night that all other teams rolled at the past Monday, and there will be no favorite team to pick out a certain set of pins for their own use.

The balls, too, will be carefully inspected. A brass ring has been constructed exactly twenty-seven and one-half inches in circumference, and this will be used as a standard through which all balls must pass before they can be rolled on to the alley.

The extra tenth of an inch in the size of the ring will allow for an expansion of a ball during damp weather.

No restriction will be put upon the weight of the balls, although it is highly probable that the convention of bowlers in Indianapolis will rule out all weighted balls in tournaments.

The greatest interest has been shown by bowlers in the vicinity of New York over the event, and it has been decided to allow any team that wishes to compete. This will let in all New Jersey teams and will not confine the bowlers to residents of Greater New York.

Teams are not to get entry blanks mailed to them at once and who desire to enter can use the following application. Cut it out and mail it to the committee at once.

There will be no bowling on Saturdays and Sundays and the schedule will be arranged to suit as many teams as possible.

The fifty trophies which The Evening World will give to the high men in the first fifty teams in the preliminaries will be something entirely different from any special device or condition to come and have a social chat with me, and I will explain to you a system of treatment which I have originated and developed after my whole life's experience in treating diseases peculiar to men. It is a treatment that is based on scientific knowledge. I have no free proposition, no trial or sample treatments to offer you. My education, my experience, my conscience, my reputation, condemn me to such a policy. If you will call and see me I will give you, free of charge, a thorough personal examination, together with an honest and scientific opinion of your condition. And your case is incurable I will honestly tell you so. If, on the other hand, I find your case is curable, I will insure you of a permanent cure, inasmuch as I have paid in case I fail to effect a permanent cure of your condition. I make no charge for medicines, as they are always included in the nominal fee asked. I attribute my success to promising nothing but what I can do, and always doing what I promise.

any other prize ever given. They will be of solid gold, well worth the one game that will be bowled to decide their ownership.

It will be no easy matter, however, to secure one of the prizes, for as practically every bowler in New York and the neighboring cities will take part in the tournament a man will have to bowl in the preliminary round.

The entries will close Jan. 31, but it is expected that most of the applications will be filed within the next few days.

Schwartz and Robinson had a set-to on the Fulton alleys the other night in a best-two-out-of-three match, which was won by Robinson, with scores of 138, 191 and 177, against his opponent's 138, 178 and 177. Nothing daunted, Schwartz challenged him again, this time to a four-out-of-seven contest. It took six games before a decision was reached, when Schwartz ran out a winner. His scores were 157, 196, 235, 214, 217 and 216. Robinson's were 102, 166, 225, 148, 149 and 177.

"SPIKE" SULLIVAN IS OUT OF JAIL.

American Boxer Is Released in London Court with Warning to Steer Clear of Strangers.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—William J. Sullivan, the American boxer, better known as "Spike" Sullivan, who with a companion named Charles Harris, was remanded without bail at a police court here Jan. 8, charged with attempting to pass "Bank of Engraving" notes, was discharged this morning after a friendly lecture from the Magistrate on the danger of conversing with strangers. Harris was committed for trial.

Sullivan, when arrested Jan. 7, denied all knowledge of the notes, which can be mistaken for notes of the Bank of England, and said he only met Harris usually at a railroad station while waiting a train which he intended to take for his training quarters.

The following are the high scores rolled on the Bedford Palace alleys during the past week: H. P. Toombs, 214; E. Berry, sr., 210, 224; A. J. Men, Come to Me.

I want every man that is suffering from any special disease or condition to come and have a social chat with me, and I will explain to you a system of treatment which I have originated and developed after my whole life's experience in treating diseases peculiar to men. It is a treatment that is based on scientific knowledge. I have no free proposition, no trial or sample treatments to offer you. My education, my experience, my conscience, my reputation, condemn me to such a policy. If you will call and see me I will give you, free of charge, a thorough personal examination, together with an honest and scientific opinion of your condition. And your case is incurable I will honestly tell you so. If, on the other hand, I find your case is curable, I will insure you of a permanent cure, inasmuch as I have paid in case I fail to effect a permanent cure of your condition. I make no charge for medicines, as they are always included in the nominal fee asked. I attribute my success to promising nothing but what I can do, and always doing what I promise.
